An account of a Stone grown to an iron Bodkin in the bladder of a Boy: communicated by Dr. Liſter Fellow of the Royal Society.

FIG. 3 repreſents a Stone which was cut out of the bladder of a Boy at Paris by Monſieur Colo: the iron bodkin, to which the Stone grew, and which paſſes through the middle of it, had been thruſt up into the bladder by the boy himſelf, about two years before the inciſion. The Stone was preſented by the above named Chirurgeon to his late Majeſtie of England, amongſt whoſe rarities it is now preſerved, and by whoſe favour and permiſſion I cauſed this draught to be made of it.
